

W. F. FREDERICK PIANO CO.

HOUSECLEANING SALE OF PIANOS.

A Notable Lot of Pianos of Celebrated
Makes Being Closed Out.

Housecleaning time is not confined to the homes. Every well regulated business house must have an occasional "clean sweep" of odds and ends and accumulated shop-worn goods. In these events the wise bargain hunter finds his best pickings.

The Frederick Piano Company is having its big housecleaning now. All last week pianos were sold like "hot cakes on a frosty morning" and this week the same good work is going on.

The astonishing part of it is the number of uprights and grands of the best makes which are included in this sale. Fine instruments that have been slightly used, are all slated to go and are being snapped up with avidity. There are Knabes in uprights and grands, Chickering's, a Hardman, a Weber and a Steinway. Magical names these. Names which mean everything that the critical musician demands. True, these pianos are not new, but look at the prices and then try to complain: $200 for the Weber, $250 for the Knabe Upright, $350 for the Steinway Grand, $200 for the Hardman Upright, $485 for the Chickering Quarter Grand.

In lower priced pianos, good, standard makes of uprights will be found priced as low as $100, while $150 will buy a real auto-crate bargain.

Remember about the "early worm."

A BRIDE OF THIS AFTERNOON.

MISS MARGARET C. C. BROOKS.

IN THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

THE CALVERT-CALVERT WEDDING AT ST. JOHN'S.

A May Wedding at St. Thomas' This Afternoon—Other Events.

Personals.

The marriage of Miss Rosalie E. S. Calvert and Mr. George Calvert took place at St. John's Church at noon today, the Rev. George Calvert Carter of Bryn Mawr, Pa., officiating. Miss Calvert is a daughter of the late Charles B. Calvert of Riverdale Manor, Maryland. The bridegroom is a son of Mr.

and Mrs. George H. Calvert of Washington, D.C., and is in the manufacturing business in Springfield, Mass., where he will take his bride after the honeymoon trip. Owing to illness in the family of the bride the wedding was a quiet one, only members of the two immediate families and the most intimate friends being asked to the church. The wedding gifts were numerous and beautiful, much of the plate being marked with the family crest of the bride. The bride wore a traveling dress of dark blue cloth and a tulle to match. Mr. John W. Calvert, brother of the bride,

Some of the out-of-town guests here for the wedding are Mrs. M. Crosby of New York, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kelley of Pittsburgh, Mrs. Langlois, Miss Gibson, Lieut. and Mrs. McMillan and Dr. and Mrs. Cryer of Philadelphia and Miss Frances Beall of Cincinnati.

Mr. Ralph McDowell, U. S. N., will be best man and the following will serve as ushers: Mr. Benjamin Frock of Philadelphia, Dr. Robert Ivy of Philadelphia and London, Dr. Harold Roberts of Philadelphia and Mr. George Schelling of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Rev. Dr. C. Ernest Smith, rector of St. Thomas' Church, will perform the ceremony, and will be assisted by the Rev. Mr. Evans, U. S. N., chaplain of the Minnesota.

The newly married couple, after their wedding trip, will go to Norfolk, where Dr. Johnson's ship, the Minnesota, is at present. They will be on the Massachusetts coast for the summer and Mrs. Brooks and her family will be at their Cape Cod home.

The bride's presents are exceedingly pretty and numerous. As a debutante of last year this bride has enjoyed all the pleasures of bellehood, and she is the first of the group of army girls, with whom she has been the closest associated, to marry.

Mrs. Brooks entertained the wedding party yesterday at the theater, having, in addition, Miss of Brookline, Cincinnati and Lieut. Pratt. Following the church rehearsal Miss Matheina Harrison gave a supper party last night, the last of a series of delightful occasions in honor of the bride and groom.

Miss Dorothy Wagner, daughter of the late Col. Wagner, U. S. A., and Mrs. Annie H. Wagner, and Mr. L. H. Nelson of New York, will be married at noon tomorrow at Rauscher's, where a reception will follow. Miss Gertrude Wagner, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor, and Mr. Helen Nelson of New York will be best man. Canon Austin will officiate, and the couple will go to London to live.

Some of their relatives and friends here for the wedding are Mrs. Richard Nelson and Miss Nelson of New York, Mr. Joseph A. Faye of New York, Mr. Redmond Carey of Brooklyn, Mr. Frederick Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schenck of New York, Mrs. W. P. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. H. Howard, Miss Elizabeth Stewart, Miss Kelley, Mrs. W. E. Hannett, Mr. J. W. Beatty, Miss Beatty, Mrs. Day, Collingswood and Miss Collingswood all of Pittsburg.

Invitations have been received here from Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rowley of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Grace Rowley, and Thomas Caldwell Ridgway of this city, Thursday evening, June 2, at 8:30 o'clock, at the Immanuel Presbyterian Church, Los Angeles. A reception will immediately follow the ceremony at the Elbel Club. They will be at home after July 15 at 2021 Menlo avenue, Los Angeles. Mr. Ridgway is well known in this city, where he graduated with high honors from the Central High School and the Columbia Law University. After spending several years engaged in the newspaper profession and practice of law in the Hawaiian Islands, during a recent visit to Washington he was admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States.

Rev. Dr. Joseph T. Kelly, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, left the city this morning with his wife for Atlantic City, where Mrs. Kelly will remain on account of her recent illness. Dr. Kelly will attend the Thursday conference of the Synodical Conference of which he is a member, in Philadelphia, after which he will return to his wife at Atlantic City, where the General Assembly is in session.

Mrs. Richard Butler has closed her apartment and gone to New York. She will spend the summer on the Maine coast.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Albert Evans will arrive in Washington Thursday from Atlantic City to attend the World's Sunday School Convention.

The regular meeting of the Beta Iota Club was held Tuesday, May 10, at the home of Miss Ella Kraft, 411 G Street northeast. President, Norman, presided. Miss Mervin called the roll and read the minutes, and Mr. Barnhart read the treasurer's report. The evening was pleasantly spent in the usual way, with games and music.

Mrs. L. Eisenman of Florence Court has as her guests for the summer Mrs. Solomon Rice and daughter, Miss Jennie Rice of Chicago. They will be at home Saturday afternoon, May 21.

An interesting event tomorrow night at the D. A. R. Hall will be the songs and dances of all nations, to be given by the members of the Girls' Friendly Society of the diocese of Washington for the benefit of the hospital fund.

Spring, Md. The officers of the society are Mrs. Henry Bolton, president; Miss Marion Taylor, vice president; Miss McGuire, secretary, and Mrs. John Boyd, treasurer. About 100 young ladies and children will take part, and a series of beautiful spectacles is assured.

Pay Inspector Lawrence Heap, U. S. N., and Mrs. Heap will go over to New York this week, and will visit relatives in the Blue Ridge mountains early in July. Later in the summer they will sail for Europe.

Gen. and Mrs. Merritt gave a dinner followed by dancing at Chevy Chase last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jeffries Parsons entertained at dinner last night the officers of the American Federation of Art, the annual convention of which begins today. The guests included Mr. Charles M. Hutchinson of Chicago, president of the federation; Mr. Ralph Adams Crane, Miss Lela Mechin, Mr. Edwin Hartman of Boston, Miss Florence M. Levy of New York, Mr. Joseph Perkins of Baltimore, Mr. Glenn Brown, Mr. Henry Jennings, Mr. William Woodward of Orleans and Mr. George de Forest Brush.

Lady Arthur Herbert of London on her arrival in this country last night will be accompanied by her sister, Mrs. E. G. H. Slater, who is now in London. They will go to the Slattery Hotel in New York for an indefinite stay. Mrs. Slater has been abroad for some time and spent the winter making a trip up the Nile.

Mrs. Thomas Gaff entertained at a luncheon at Fairfax Hotel, Washington, yesterday for a motor party which included Mrs. Frank Ellis.

Senator and Mrs. Gugenheim have taken a cottage at Hot Springs, Va., for the early summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton L. Wood of Utica, N. Y., who have been on a short trip south, spent yesterday afternoon at the home of the latter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sylvester, and left last night for home.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. A. Force Mainhall of Q street yesterday morning, when her daughter, Miss Alice Jeffries Mainhall, was united in marriage to Mr. John W. Green of New York. Rev. Harry Farmer of Foundry M. E. Church performed the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of blue broadcloth made princess, with trimming of real lace, with coat and hat to match. She carried bride roses and was attended by her sister, Miss Gladys Mainhall, who wore white silk made semi-princess and carried pink carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her mother, who wore black silk with white lace trimming. Mr. Louis Albert Campbell of Washington was best man. A wedding lunch was served for the bridal party, after which an informal reception was held. The bride received many pretty wedding gifts. The happy couple left on the 3 o'clock train for a short trip, after which they will reside at 421 West 22d street, New York city. Mr. John W. Green is a custom house inspector in the city of New York. He was formerly a special agent for the United States Department of Justice, having spent a number of years in the Philippine Islands engaged in special work for that department.

Mrs. Carl Kaufman will be at home tomorrow afternoon and evening at 324 M street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Mumford have bought Cedar Croft, the beautiful country place of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Mumford, who will make it their summer home, spending the winters in the city, as usual.

Europe accompanied by Miss Fanny Bloomer.

Capt. and Mrs. Richard T. Williams will go to Baltimore tomorrow to spend the next ten days with Mrs. Decatur H. Miller at Woodliff, Green Spring valley, mother of the latter.

California Williams has been appointed to special duty at the American legation, Peking, China. They will sail from the Pacific coast in a few days for the far east, and will travel for about two months before reaching Peking.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald R. Harmon entertained at a dinner and musical last evening in compliment to Col. Eugene Plummer, dean of the consular corps at Maracaibo, Venezuela. Among their guests were Senator and Senora Eugene Plummer, Mr. Mal. Eduardo Lozes of Cuba, Dr. David Svero of Cienfuegos, Senator Julio Houbon Villamor, former governor of Luzon, Philippine Islands, Senator Jose Legastill Villamor of Manila, Mrs. Marion R. Hall of Detroit, Miss Nichols, Mr. R. C. Plummer of Buffalo, Mr. William H. Weaver, Dr. Mario Nunez Mesa and Senor Barranco, both of the Cuban legation.

The annual tea at the Home for Incurables was held yesterday and was well attended. The seven hundred guests were received by Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, the president of the board, assisted by Thomas Symonds, secretary, and Lewis Clarke and Mrs. John O. Evans, and in the large sitting room Mrs. Thomas Sayar, Mrs. Robert Chew and Mrs. Huntington Wilson, with a number of assistants, dispensed tea, lemonade and sandwiches. Among the visitors were the Bishop of Washington, Mrs. Meyer, wife of the Secretary of the Navy, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. Randolph McKim, Mrs. Ralph Jenkins, Mrs. Duncan McKim, Mrs. Charles Rae, Miss Kibbey, Mr. and Mrs. Hennen Jennings, Mr. R. H. Pitt, Assistant Secretary of the Beekman Winthrop, Dr. and Mrs. Bratenahl, Dr. and Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. George Hunt, Miss Mellon, Mrs. S. C. Schroeder, the Misses Schroeder, Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Frank B. Noyes, Mrs. Charles and Mrs. E. A. Frement Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. Peyton Russell, Mrs. Richard Harlow, the Misses Harlan and Sen. and Mrs. George L. Andrews.

The general comfort of the house and the special improvements of the past year received unanimous approval. The members of the board of management escorted visitors through the building.

Miss M. Carey Thomas and Miss Garrett have issued invitations for a luncheon at the Academy, Bryn Mawr, to meet President Taft, June 2.

Gen. and Mrs. Merritt gave a dinner followed by dancing at Chevy Chase last night.
